Principal Leonard Menzi

To the Roosevelt Alumni:

It is May 1946 and soon another graduating class will join the ever increasing numbers of Roosevelt Alumni. Those of us who have had a part in the education of all of you are proud of you and your accomplishments. If you return to visit us you will find in operation many of the traditions which you helped to establish. The school will change with the progress of education, but the same friendly atmosphere and the high standards of scholarship will be maintained with the passing years.

The pin of the society consists of a lighted torch with a foundation of the first letters of the words scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Miss Susan Stinson is the faculty adviser. To date, the Roosevelt society has a total of 137 members, 55 boys and 82 girls.

Following is the complete list of the Honor Society members dating from 1927:

Alumni Observe 20th Anniversary

Three R H S Soloists Gain State Honors

Over 1,500 high school students participated in the Michigan Band and Orchestra State Solo and Ensemble Festival held at East Lansing, Friday, April 12. This was the first time since 1941 that there had been a state musical festival. Prior to the state festival, district festivals were held all over lower Michigan. Students who received first and second division ratings at the district festival entered the state competition.

Solo instrumental and ensemble ratings were divided into four divisions of skill in performance. The students are judged on the basis of a fan accepted standard. It was said that this year the standard was the highest it has ever been. Out of the 1,500 students, 513 received first and second division ratings.

Barbara Warner, Franzi Isbell, violins, and Ruben Nolf, trumpet, went to the festival from Roosevelt School. Barbara gained a first, Fuben, a second, and Franze, a third. First and second division winners will receive medals for their accomplishments.

45 Students Vie For Awards In Kite Contest

Pupils of the upper elementary and junior school grades, numbering 45 boys and girls, flew their kites, Tuesday afternoon, April 16, on the Roosevelt play field in the third annual kite-flying contest.

The Industrial Arts Club of the College and the Roosevelt Home Work Shop, under the guidance of Duane Chamberlain, adviser of the two clubs, sponsored the 1946 event. Robert Itnyre, Industrial Arts major, and president of the College Club, directed the day's activities.

The contest calls upon the ingenuity of the pupils in designing and constructing their kites, and upon their manipulative ability in flying the kites. The kite entries ranged in size from 2¼ inches to 7½ feet. The boys and girls built them to represent stars, animals, blinking eyes, comic strip characters, or whatever their imagination could create. They painted them in a rainbow of colors.

Each contestant could enter for any three of the 12 scheduled awards; namely, best-made kite, most novel kite, largest kite, smallest kite, best design, highest flier, strongest pulling, best box kite, best messenger, best tug of war, and best kite flight.

In the highest-flyer event, a clinograph geometrically calculated the kite's height. The clinograph consists of a graphed board with two plumb bobs. Robert Kole's flight measured 500 feet. A spring-scale testing the pull of the strongest pulling kite. Dave Steimle's kite pulled 1800 grams.

BITTER TRUTH

One of the things which we have heard much of in school is our study habits. Ever since we can remember, we have heard teachers or parents say: "Sit up straight, you can work better," or "Now that gives you a month in which to do this problem. Be sure you get it done well and on time," or "Do your own work and thinking, do your homework regularly every night, and don't waste your study hall periods." We can all remember these phrases and shudder, and of course, unwillingly realize their truth.

How often have you waited to do that big assignment until the last minute, or studied on that big test just two hours ahead of time, or done the month's project the night before? And then when you got your paper back, you wondered how you could get such a terrible mark, especially after studying and working so hard. You may have really studied and worked in those last moments, but that kind of cramming just doesn't work. Right now you probably have some special project to do before semester exams, or some homework to make up, or maybe just exams coming up. Why don't you start studying now and be sure of yourself? You may think that your teachers and parents are just "blowing", but remember, they've had experience. They aren't talking just to talk. They're trying to help you! Give them a little co-operation!

OUR JOB TO HELP THE STARVING

Long before the last shot was fired in Germany, the United States was planning for another war, the war against famine. Today we are battling against that famine with all of our excess foods and farm equipment, but that is not enough. Thousands of people are actually starving each month and unless something is done immediately, the population of many countries is threatened with a serious decrease. The few people who are receiving food are obtaining so few calories that all are greatly undernourished. This is a serious problem. It is not like Americans to stand idly by and see a situation like this continue. We can all do something to ease this crisis. We have been asked to eat less, do without some foods, and be content with a poorer grade of food. To accept these changes, in addition to planting a garden, are the sacrifices asked of all of us. We have always done our part in the past, and we will not change now. Let's do our part America.

Fight Song

Here's to Roosevelt High,
Whose spirit never knows defeat.
Here's to our team,
Come on and fight
And make our victory complete.
When they are marching down the field,
Let's raise our voices to the sky,
And then we'll fight, fight, fight
for victory
And raise a cheer to Roosevelt High.

Memos From The Mailbox

"Ha, ha, that's a yolk on me," said the Swedish lady as she dropped an egg on the front of her dress.

"Are you taking your girl to the movies?"

"We don't have to go. Her mother and father are going."

—The Wichitan.

Bachelors: Fellows who failed to embrace their opportunities.

—The Bluejacket.

"I got a real kick out of kissing Jane last night."

"Any more than usual?"

"Yea, the old man caught me!"

—The Wichitan.

He: Darling. I have been thinking of something for a long, long time. Something is trembling on my lips...

She: Why don't you shave it off?

—The Wichitan.

If it weren't fer
This here verse,
There'd be a joke here
Ten time worse.

P.S.—In the spring a young man's fancy, and the old ones aren't so slow!

Seniors Send Gift To Irma Ellsworth

The seniors recently took up a collection for their class mate, Irma Ellsworth, who is in Howell Sanitarium with tuberculosis. The class collected $20 and they voted to add an additional $20 which was taken from the class treasury. The money, along with a few gifts from classmates, was taken to Irma the week-end of April 26.

Visitors report that Irma always seems to be in good spirits, but she gets lonesome and bored with nothing to do all day. She is allowed to keep up work on one or two of her studies, but for the most part, she must have complete rest and quiet. She welcomes any letters from her friends and also any news from school.

Kat'n Jabber

Meorr, meorr—Joan Watts was really in a dither for a few days while Fred Butt was home from the Navy. Ah, male, mail! Vida Runyon gave Ken back his jacket, sweater, and jewelry, but they soon made up. He was smarter this time though, he only gave her his bracelet!

You've noticed Don Noonchester lovingly polishing a Ypsi Hi ring, no doubt, Mary Bone again!

Peggy Alexander's R-O-G-E-R is nearer home now, and it is very nice for all concerned. Poor Drew—he hook the hard end of that deal (meorr). In case you don't know, he's now wearing his own class ring.

Meorr—a new corridor romance has sprung. It is Willoween McDougal and Bruce Ballard.

Ah, Pat!! Smallidge we mean! You certainly have got Bob Wilson going around in circles. Ssst—

Spring has hit the young ones, too. Dick Royal walked simply blocks out of his way to walk Jackie Wright to school, and of course we have that very cute couple Sue McDermott and Dougal McGoon.

Jeanette Wallace is seen gaily tripping down the hall every night with a tennis racquet belonging to her man Gooding. Ah—that's what I call obedience.

Mar Lou Miller has been picked up after school quite often by Karl Klaffke, '43.

We have a new corporation in school in the form of Hertler and Gooding—ash collectors. Hertler rates his name first even though Gooding collects all the profits.

Jim Bell has a date with Ann Cleary for the Varsity dance—and Sharkie with Bob Baker. She and Bill must have a mutual understanding.

Yo ho—off to the alley!

"Well, son, what have you been doing all afternoon?"

"Shooting dice, mother."

"That must stop. Those little things hacc as much right to live as you have."

He: Ah, You have a lovely mouth. She: You've been all over that before.

Baby Bee—a little bumble from heaven.

Thin Clads Gain Tenth Place In River Rouge Meet

The Roosevelt thinclads placed tenth out of a field of 42 class B, C, D, schools at the River Rouge Invitational Meet held at Yost Field House in Ann Arbor, April 13. Coach A. D. Walker didn't enter a full team. However the men gathered a total of 12 points. Keith Gundrum took second in high hurdles. He ran the best qualifying time, 8.7, in the semi-finals, but was nosed out in the finals by Shultz of Romulus. Gundrum also placed fourth in the low hurdles. The medley relay consisting of oConnolly, Bair, Gundrum and Vest, ran a dead heat with Romulus, and the time gave them a fourth place tie. Vest placed second in his heat of the 440, but his time wasn't among the top six. Bill Sweet reached the semi-finals in the 60 yard dash. Coach Walker, although well satisfied, said "There is room for much improvement." Romulus placed first in the meet with a total of 21½ points.

Rough Riders Drop First Tilt Of Year

The Rough Rider baseball nine dropped their opening game, 10-0, to a strong Romulus team April 23.

The game would have been a dual between pitcher George Bloom of Roosevelt and Zabik of Romulus if it had not been for the sloppy fielding of the inexperienced R. H. S. players. Bloom struck out ten and allowed only three hits, but the Romulus men romped the bases, capitalizing on the numerous Roosevelt errors.

For Romulus, Zabik twirled a no-hitter until with two out in the ninth Bob Goins, batting for Rynearson, blooped a Chinese liver into right field to spoil his bid.

The park was full as parks should be;
The benches were empty as benches ain.

The reason was a sign, "Wet Paint."

I think that I shall never see
A billboard lovely as a tree.
Indeed, unless the billboards fall
I'll never see a tree at all!
